$100 MAY EARN $1,000—THE FONTOffice Department of the United States government wants a certain kind of a device for general use; we have the kind of device the government wants, and our device was tested by the Post-Office Department; we can show that it proved satisfactory at the places where it was and is installed; our device is a combination salesman, cashler, bookkeeper, labor-saver, cash register and safe depository; it has an extensive field; it is a wonderful machine of great commercial value; we have expended many thousands of dollars in perfecting it, securing patents, manufacturing models, machines, etc.; we have it perfected now; all of our machines that are in use are giving perfect satisfaction; we require funds to help manfacture and market extensively; $100 or more may be invested; part payment accepted; balance .nonthly for ten months; $100 may grow to $1,000 in reasonable time; let us show yeu; this is a big thing; look into it; prospectus, indersements, references, etc.
